Activity Worksheet

Challenging brain

Sub : Science Grade: X Date: .....

Name: ..... ID No.....

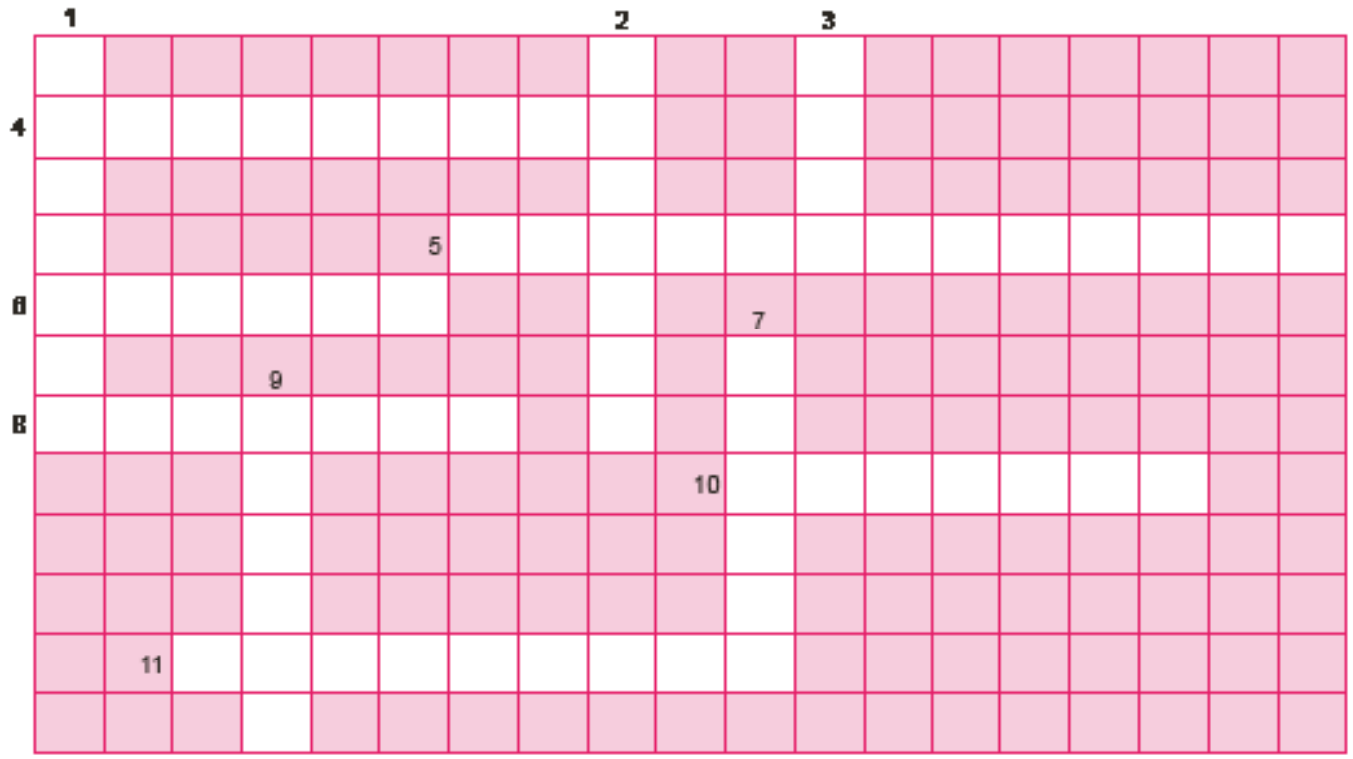
Crossword Puzzle

Directions: Complete the following puzzle with the help of given clues.



Across

4. An element whose thin oxide layer is used to make other elements corrosion resistant by the process of anodising.

5. The process of depositing a thin layer of zinc metal on iron objects.

6. A lustrous non-metal.

8. A metal which is liquid at room temperature.

10. An allotrope of carbon which is the hardest substance known.

11. A metal which is placed at the top in the reactivity series.

Down

1. A metal which will melt if we keep it on our palm.

2. An alloy of mercury metal with one or more other metals.

3. Metal which is an important constituent of steel and forms rust when exposed to moist air.

7. A soft metal which can be cut with a knife.

9. Positively charged ion.

© Copyright 2011-12. Rights reserved with Producer/Publisher.