

Activity Worksheet

Challenging brain

Sub : GEOGRAPHY

Grade: X

Date:

Name:

ID No.....

State whether the following statements are TRUE or FALSE

1. Black Buck is an endangered species. _____
2. The greatest damage to Indian forests was inflicted during the colonial period. _____
3. The species which are in danger of extinction are called extinct species. _____
4. Shifting is one of the important factors of deforestation. _____
5. In villages, women are more affected than men in the process of deforestation. _____
6. Indian Wildlife Act was meant to protect various tribes in India. _____
7. Poaching is one of the factors which has led to the decline of biodiversity. _____
8. Protected forests are considered as the most valuable, as far as the conservation of forests and wildlife resources are concerned. _____
9. In India, Madhya Pradesh has the largest area under permanent forests. _____
10. The famous Chipko Movement was to save wildlife in the forests. _____

Answer the following from the above information

1. Who is responsible for the destruction of life on Earth?
(a) Humans (b) Trees (c) Animals
2. Forests are _____ to mankind.
(a) Dispensible (b) Indispensible (c) None of the these
3. The major cause of earthquakes, avalanches and landslides is:
(a) Snowfall (b) Planting of trees (c) Stripping of vegetation
4. The desert which is believed to be a man-made desert.
(a) Gobi (b) Sahara (c) Thar
5. Animals are being widely used for the _____ sciences.
(a) Medical (b) Computer (c) Home