

EXCERSICE

Practice. Perform. Succeed

Sub : Science

Grade: IX

Date: .....

Name: .....

ID No.....

State whether the following statements are True or False:

1. Jersey is an Indian breed of cow. _____
2. To enhance poultry production, cross breeding is done between Indian and exotic breeds for variety improvement. _____
3. To increase the production of fish, they can be cultured in marine and inland ecosystems. _____
4. Wheat, gram, peas, mustard and linseed are kharif crops. _____
5. Macronutrients required by plants include nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, calcium, magnesium and sulphur. _____
6. The process in which farm waste materials like livestock excreta, vegetable waste, sewage waste, straw eradicated weeds, etc., are decomposed in pits is known as vermi-compost. _____
7. Fertilizers get washed away due to excessive irrigation and are not fully absorbed by the plants which leads to water pollution. _____
8. Fresh initiatives for increasing the water available for agriculture include canals, wells and tanks. _____
9. Poultry farming is done to raise domestic fowls for egg production and chicken meat. _____
10. One way of improving the crop is by introducing a gene that would provide the desired characteristics. _____