

Activity Worksheet

Challenging brain

Sub : ECONOMICS

Grade: X

Date:

Name:

ID No.....

State whether the following statements are TRUE or FALSE

1. To compare the development between countries, the most important attribute is income. _____
2. The total income of a country is measured of those people who earn Rs. 10,000 per month. _____
3. The average income of a nation is called Per Capita Income. _____
4. The development of a country is also determined by the sustainability of their resources. _____
5. Kerala has low infant mortality rate because it has adequate health facilities. _____
6. High capita income also provides a polluted-free environment. _____
7. Money may not be able to protect you from infectious diseases. _____
8. Once there is development, its for all. _____

Multiple Choice Questions on Millenium Development Goals

1. The MDG program is launched by:
(a) USA (b) China (c) UN
2. How many countries are a part of this programme?
(a) 147 (b) 189 (c) 139
3. What is the goal of 'Universal Primary Education'?
(a) To provide education to girls
(b) To provide education to children of member countries
(c) To provide education everywhere so that children get full primary schooling
4. The number of children, of primary school age, who are not in schools:
(a) More than 10 million (b) More the 5 million (c) More than 15 million
5. Which regions benefit most from this programme?
(a) Sub-Saharan Africa (b) South Asia (c) Both a and b